Roffe Swayne helps Owen make a splash

Chartered Accountants Roffe Swayne are sponsoring Milford swimmer Owen Morgan in his quest to win a medal in the forthcoming Commonwealth Games in Melbourne by paying for the supplements he'll need while he's away.

Owen, whose mother Sally works as a secretary for Roffe Swayne, will be representing Wales and specialises in 50 meter sprints in butterfly and freestyle. He'll be leaving for Australia next week to start a six week training programme before his races in the middle of March.

Roffe Swayne partner Sharon Ward, said "We are delighted to be able to sponsor Owen in the Commonwealth Games and wish him every success. He has promised to come back to the office and show us his medals!"
