Roffe Swayne's Loss is Charity's Gain

Godalming Chartered Accountants Roffe Swayne is well known for their sporting expertise and dedication to keeping their team happy and healthy. To this end they have recently run a weight loss competition for their staff and some excellent results have been achieved. The firm made a donation to charity for every kilo lost and also presented a bottle of champagne to anyone who lost five kilos in the 12 week period.

Roffe Swayne's Managing Partner, Jeff Saunders, said "We have always encouraged a healthy lifestyle for our employees and this latest campaign has brought about some dramatic results. Not only have our dieters benefited but also over £200 was raised for local charity. It was an interesting outcome in that all of our winners were men!"
